Pew Changes in Senate.

The Senate standing committees of last year are continued this year with a few changes caused by the retirement of several Senators. The Committee on the Affairs of the City of New York has Senator Cromwell of Richmond as its Senator Cromwell of Richmond as its chairman to take the place coursed by the resignation of Ogden L. Mills, who is on Gen. Pershing's staff. Senators Nicoll of Manhattan and Towner of Dutchess are named as new members of this committee, Senator Nicoll also has been made a member of the committee. mittees on Judiciary, Taxation and Penal Institutiona, Senstor Wellington of Rensselaer succeeds Senator Cromwell as chairman of the Canals Committee. The addition of Senators Nicoli and Ottinger to the Senate Taxation Committee is said to put this committee at a tie—five to five—on prohibition legis-lation. The dry fight in the Legislature will centre about this committee.

The Senate to-night referred the Hill bill to ratify the national prohibition amendment to the Committee on Taxation and Retrenchment. At attempt was made to have it sent to the Judiciary Committee, but Senator Emerson, chairman of the Taxation Committee, objected. In the Assembly, however, the bill went to the Judiciary Committee.

Assemblyman McNab introduced it in the lower house. will centre about this committee.
